

Exciting Opportunity for People with Convictions: Apply Now for our Entrepreneurship Course!

Project ReMAKE is a UK-based charity that empowers individuals with convictions and lived experience to rebuild their lives through entrepreneurship. We provide practical business training and connect participants with top universities, industry leaders, and valuable professional networks.

What the course offers:

Essential business skills and knowledge to help you start your own business or self-employment.

- Introduction into business
- Product, Unique Selling Point, SWOT and Lean Start Up
- Customers
- Marketing
- Cost Cashflows & Sources of Finance
- Intellectual Property
- Foundational Digital Skills

The opportunity to present your business plan to a panel of business leaders, gaining valuable connections, feedback, and potential signposting to further opportunities.

What you need to apply:

A simple application form, a declaration, and a short elevator pitch to explain your business idea.

Please note: As we partner with universities and businesses, we are unable to accept applicants with unspent convictions related to arson, terrorism, or sexual offences.

For more information, please visit our website: www.project-remake.org.uk.

Please contact Jade Antoine applications@remake365.com for further information.